Janyka Ross Pasco Caganap

Singapore Permanent Resident

As a growing multi-disciplinary arts practitioner and manager, I believe that a great design is the product of collaborative work united with sensitive and innovative values. With a background in architecture and a deep interest for curation and conservation, I am intrigued by the constant reinvention of social, cultural, and environmental art and architecture. Ultimately, I strive to utilise the various forms of art that answers the urgent questions confronting local and global issues.
