Biography

Jeoshua Wang is an actor, writer, and final-year student in the Diploma in Performance at LASALLE College of the Arts. In 2025, he made his professional debut in Singapore Repertory Theatre's Shakespeare in the Park: Macbeth, and earned his first directing credit as an Assistant Director in The Winter Players' Much Ado About Nothing. Jeoshua has recently been awarded the National Arts Council's Arts Scholarship for Diploma.

Jeoshua hopes to both create and direct original works, all while continuing to grow as a performer. He aspires to help make theatre more accessible to youths not just as audiences, but as creators too. Jeoshua looks forward to further deepening his understanding of theatre and performance, honing his craft and developing his creative vision. He is eager to contribute meaningfully to the local theatre scene and to ensure that, wherever he goes, he will always have something to offer.
