

October Bong Man Won

a jack of all trade is a master of none but oftentimes better than a master of one.

but I think I'm a master of many :)

Hello, my name is October, I'm a third culture Malaysian kid, born and raised in the small country of Brunei Darussalam!

I'm an artist, illustrator, graphic designer and a self-proclaimed food connoisseur :)

As an artist, Much of my work explores relational dynamics and the emotional texture of hypercontemporary life, where intimacy, digital culture, and quiet rituals intersect. One of my relational projects, Say Hello to Your Stranger, featured in The Straits Times was a quiet reminder that sincerity and shared experiences still resonate.

As an illustrator & graphic designer, I create art as a form of expression and as an extension of my creative personality. Though I work across a range of mediums, I find stylistic consistency in the use of a vibrant palette (and personality :)
