CURRICULUM VITAE

Biography

Alvin, also known as WhiteBlue (Alias) is a Multidisciplinary Visual Pop Fine Artist, Illustrator and Graphic Designer from Singapore, making art across a variety of mediums from sculpture, illustration, digital and traditional visual arts.

An enthusiastic geek that love and inspired by pop culture, new media works, and other aspects of life as a visual representational artist and creative living in the flux of modern times. He makes colourful, energetic and maximalist visuals and illustrations that reflects his experiences, stories and his many interests, whether it is from media, animation, games, music, art or design.

Alvin is a Multi-Disciplinary Artist, a Creative Practitioner, Visual & Design Communication Graphic Designer. He foremost got into Graphic and Visual Design as a Visual Merchandiser back in 2015 as a Designer in the Business & Marketing Industry.

He went and graduated from Lasalle College of the Arts, Diploma in Design Communication, where he is able to practice both design and art as a Graphic Designer, Design and Media Communication Designer and a Visual Artist.

As a keen Multi-Disciplinary Artist, he took courses in Sewing, Textile and Drafting Fashion Course on the side where he's able to incorporate it into his Design Communication Diploma and add into his repertoire of skills of both Traditional and Digital skills.

Moving with the times, He took an interest and applied for 3D Computer Aided Design for 3D modeling and printing course, where he is able to apply his 3D CAD skill back in Technical School, Visual Merchandising and applied to 3D Printing

Alvin, an independent creative, has the tenacity and versatility to learn and adapt and would further his studies in BFA Bachelor Degree with Hons in Fine Art, Goldsmith, Lasalle College of the Arts.

With a wide repertoire of skills of both Traditional Complexity and Technical Digital Skills and talent that Alvin is able to achieve, he ultimately wants to be a Multi-Disciplinary creative practitioner that is keen to continue to learn and applied to his craft.
