

ZHU JINGYI

Interior Designer

About Me

I'm Zhu Jingyi, a 20-year-old Interior Design student. I've always been drawn to the way spaces can shape experiences, and studying design has given me the tools to turn ideas into reality. Through my projects, I've explored different ways to balance function and aesthetics, constantly refining my skills and creative approach. I have a passion and positive attitude towards interior design. I'm eager to keep learning and gaining hands-on experience in the field. I believe that I am dedicated, enthusiastic, and committed to becoming a dependable and valuable team member.
