ABOUT

I'm a Creative Direction for Fashion major at LASALLE College of the Arts with a love for storytelling, styling, and building visual worlds that connect. Whether it's crafting a campaign moodboard, working on collaborative shoots, or refining the smallest detail in a concept, I enjoy being hands-on and thoughtful in every part of the creative process. I'm excited to bring a fresh perspective, a strong work ethic, and a curious mindset to an internship where I can learn and grow with a team.
